Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating May 1994 as “National Sporting Goods Month”.

Whereas a program of regular exercise and good nutrition has been shown to be the best prescription to a longer and healthier life;

Whereas more than 22,000 sporting goods retailers and more than 3,000 manufacturers and sales agents promote good health and fitness through participation in sports activities;

Whereas millions of Americans participate in sports activities
each year;

Whereas 6 of the 10 most popular sports activities as surveyed annually by the National Sporting Goods Association are fitness related activities;

Whereas more Americans of all ages are participating in a regular exercise program;

Whereas the National Sporting Goods Association has served sporting goods retailers, manufacturers, and sales agents on a not-for-profit basis; and

Whereas for 65 years the sporting goods industry, with the National Sporting Goods Association, has promoted good fitness as a way of life: Now, therefore, be it
